Right Now

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

I'm waiting by the front door because you told me you were coming by.
Now I'm waiting all alone and something tells me something just ain't right.
Right now I am waiting. Right now I'm debating
If I should just be moving on... tonight it feels like it's all wrong, alright.
You said we've been through much worse and you're working late and we'll find another night.
But as I recall I'm the one who called... like always you're too busy to even write.
Right now I am waiting. Right now I'm debating
If I should just be moving on... tonight it feels like it's all wrong, alright.
Right now I am waiting. Right now I'm debating
If I should just be moving on... tonight it feels like it's all wrong, alright.
It's all wrong. It's alright. It's all wrong.
Now I'm walking out the front door... you don't even get the chance to say good-bye.
Now I'm walking all alone and for the first time I can say that I'm alright.

Right now I am leaving.
Right now I'm believing...

That things are gonna turn around and
I'm on my way right here, right now.

Burn

Words and Music ©2011Adam Beverly

Sometimes I burn like I am burning out tonight.

Sometimes I run like I am running away.

Sometimes I feel like I should hit the town tonight.

Most of the time, you know, it's best I stay away.

Sometimes I feel like I'm

Burning out and I believe that

Nothing can help me now and then

There you are holding out your hand and saying... "come burn with me."

Sometimes I feel like I am burning hot tonight.

Sometimes I feel like I am on my way.

Sometimes I feel like I am burning bright tonight.

But most of the time, you know, I'm just fading away.

Sometimes I feel like I'm

Burning out and I believe that

Nothing can help me now and then

There you are holding out your hand and saying... "come burn with me."

To my surprise I can

See in your eyes and I believe that

Through all the fire and my

Burning desire I still can find some peace...come burn with me.

Sometimes I burn like I am burning out.

Everywhere

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

This is so much more than

I ever wanted

Anyways.

So take me for granted

This is what you wanted.

I am

Everywhere. Everywhere.

I am Everywhere. Everywhere.

Through nights and days and

Ten thousand ways

You just call on

Me.

Come the day

I'm Gone

I know it won't be long

You'll see me

Everywhere. Everywhere.

Can't you see that I am so much

More?

But I am

Everywhere. Everywhere.

It won't be long.

Before

I'm Gone.

And you'll look

Everywhere. Everywhere.

Around About

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

You can work me up or you can run me down.
You can hang me out as long as I get in... somehow.
I've been running on low, I've never been one to get high.
But I ain't got much left...So man, I'd better be right...this time.
Because I can't give you anymore. But this time around I won't settle for less Beause I'm sure... I think... that what you want's what I need.
And I know, without a doubt, we will get through...or maybe just
Around About
Neither one of us knew that it would get this old.
Now we're trying to get by but we're neither bought nor sold...anymore.
So maybe it's time
To leave all our things and take what's yours and what's mine.
Beause I'm sure, I think, that what you want's what I need.
And I know, without a doubt, we will get through...or maybe just Around About...or maybe just...around about...or maybe just...around about or maybe just...
Because I'm sure, I think, that what you want's what I need.
And I know, without a doubt, we will get through...or maybe just Around About.

Downtown

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

We'd never been to the place that I was,
But I looked for you all night long
It would have felt so right if you'd walked in tonight
So we could talk about what's been going on
I've been downtown tonight
I've seen people and places and all my life
I've been downtown tonight
I couldn't tell you any more but, man it's been a hell of a night
I met some friends both new and old
And I heard the lies that the bar-man told
But in the back of my mind I had turned to the times
When we were close as brothers and not so old
I've been downtown tonight
I've seen people and places and all my life
I've been downtown tonight
I couldn't tell you any more but, man it's been a hell of a night
Tonight I toasted to way out west
Where my best friends and family reside
And as I sat with some strangers and lied my best
I threw some down and swallowed my pride
I've been downtown tonight
I've seen people and places and all my life
I've been downtown tonight
I couldn't tell you any more but, man it's been a hell of a night

I'm Gone

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

I'm gonna tie up all my loose ends and keep a handful of good friends for nights when I find myself alone. It feels like I' m running away from you but that's just half the truth... you're the one who said
I had to go. Now...I'm Gone. I'm long gone. Gone, and you won't find me anywhere. Now I'm gone. I'm long gone.
Gone, I say, as if you even care. I'd been living in that town since before you came around. I never really planned that I should move. But it don't matter what I see from honky-tonks to tv... in that place I'll always think of you. Now...I'm Gone. I'm long gone. Gone, and you won't find me anywhere. Now I'm gone.
I'm long gone. Gone, I say, as if you even care. On my way out of town I'll keep my eyes on the ground in case our paths are destined to be crossed. But my words are well rehearsed and though they'll probably make things worse ... I'll be sure to say that you're the one that's lost.
And then...I'm Gone.

Late-night Getaways

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

Wouldn't it be great
With late-night getaways
And those summer nights in Central Cal
With that youngster feeling of anything, anyhow
We could just be anywhere
A roadside picnic in the dirty air
And then a song to soothe our souls
Without a thought of growing old
Old was never something
We thought we'd ever say
It felt like we could drive forever
On those late-night getaways
You could call me in the morning
You could come by without warning
We could take a day and write it off
As lost, in love, young, free and full of thought
Thought all the time
That we would never change
Because if love was not like this,
Our loves would be shame.
Old was never something
We thought we'd ever say
It felt like we'd be young forever
On those late-night getaways

A man with a beard and short hair, wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt, stands on a city street. He is looking slightly to his left with a thoughtful expression. The background shows a multi-story brick building with several windows, some with flower boxes. The street is paved, and there are some blurred elements in the distance, suggesting an urban environment. The lighting is somewhat dim, possibly overcast or late afternoon.

Wheels on the Road

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

Wheels on the road are like a story untold... I know it's funny... let me try to explain.
It's like hearing the same song again and again and never quite feeling the same.
Like in life things rush right by... I could stop but I keep keeping on.
I'm looking, looking for things that I missed... always wondering where things went wrong.
These wheels on the road are like a story untold These wheels on the road...
Counting miles, upon miles, upon miles... never knowing the toll they took,
The lights the sounds, the life the towns... there's someplace new every "where" I look.
These wheels on the road are like a story untold
So this is it. Take a good look. It's all I am...my cover's my book.
The white line left. The yellow line right... I ain't keeping track of the turns I took.
These wheels on the road are like a story untold
No goal in mind, I can't say that I'm lost. I'll stay my course no matter the cost.
I'll stay on my side if they stay on theirs... drive in rain, snow, sun, frost.
Don't you remember the nights that we drove... because we could. We talked through the night.
What did we say? Where did we go? It didn't matter. It felt so right.
These wheels on the road are like a story untold.
These wheels on the road are like a story untold.

Come on, Come on

Words and Music ©2011 Adam Beverly

Every girl's got a name
And every man's got a plan
I'm on my way out of here
And I'm holding out my hand. So just
Come on, come on
Come on, come on
I can't promise anything. Let's live the dream.
You say this world's got you down.
And I...I know what you mean
And I... I wish I could tell you
It's not as bad as it seems, but just...
Come on, come on
Come on, come on
I can't promise anything let's live the dream
You tell me you've got your doubts.
Believe me...I've got some, too.
And I'm... I'm running out of reasons
For doing what we do. So just...
Come on, come on
Come on, come on
I can't promise anything let's live the dream.
